Local Club Member Selected to Attend Boys & Girls Clubs Teen Conference in Germany Club Member from Osceola County to Take Part in European Keystone Conference This July

Orlando, FL. (July 13, 2010) – Boys & Girls Clubs of Central Florida (BGCCF) is proud to announce that 16 year-old Ahkeem Holliman, a Club member from the new Tupperware Brands Branch in Osceola County (formerly Osceola Branch), has been selected as only one of two teens nationwide to attend the 2010 European Keystone Conference, hosted by Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA), in Germany from July 23-30.

Holliman was selected for this high honor based on his significant Boys & Girls Club contributions at the local and national levels, as well as for his volunteerism within the local community. As a part of the international experience, Ahkeem will serve as a BGCCF representative and take part in various educational sessions. Holliman will also speak about how his Central Florida Boys & Girls Club has changed his life for the positive.

A BGCCF Club member for over six years, Holliman has learned about leadership, humility and the need to be driven—all qualities that have brought him to where he is today in school, in the community and at his Club in Kissimmee, Florida.

Always involved in Club activities and programs, recently, Holliman was awarded the “Brother of the Year” award through the Club’s “Brother to Brother” program and is an active member of his Branch’s Keystone Club, one of the Boys & Girls Clubs Movement’s most dynamic teen leadership and service programs.
