

Being a Friend Matching Activity

Directions: Cut out the cards and match them to either "Being a Good Friend" or "Being a Bad Friend"

Being a Good Friend

Being a Bad Friend

Looking away when they are telling a story

Sharing some of your snack when they have none

Asking them if they want to play with you

Giving a thumbs down when they do poorly

Not helping when it is time to clean up

Helping with a homework problem

Giving a high five when they try their best

Running away when they are crying

Laughing when they get a question wrong

Listen to their story about their family

Always telling them the truth

Telling them their hair looks weird

Ignoring them if they ask for help

Help them zip their coat if it gets stuck

Not whispering things about them

Keeping all of the toys for yourself

Asking them to come over to play

Smile and ask how they are when you see them

Telling them your team is better than theirs

Telling them you like their shirt

Making up lies to make yourself look good

Taking their pencil from their desk

Telling them they can't play with you today

Spreading rumors about them

Sticking up for them if you hear someone else not being a good friend

Working together to clean up a mess

Telling them they are your friend

Calling them hurtful names

Frown when you see them at the Club

Saying "See you later!" when you leave for the day
