What is one goal you have set for the future?

To give more of my time to help others.

If you could learn something new, what would it be?

A new language - Italian

If you had a whole day to do whatever you wanted, what would you do?

Be active - exercise, walk, run. Of course rest a bit and probably read.

What are some of your interests or hobbies?

Staying fit - exercising. Trying new recipes. The Boys & Girls Clubs. Keeping up to date on the news and current events. History - especially World War II.

What are some adversities you faced in middle school or high school? (i.e. bullying, peer pressure, drugs, alcohol, etc.) How did you handle these adversities?

Growing up in the 1960's and 1970's drugs and alcohol were always around. I had to remind myself to be true to who I am, to be strong and not give into these adversities just because others were pressuring me to do so.

If you could tell your younger self any piece of advice, what would it be and why?

Always be true to who you are. Be genuine. Be kind - always be kind
